

Dharma through this event.

Abbot of FoGuang Shan Monastery, the Venerable HsinPao (7th right), and Director-General Tseng (7th left), pictured with special guests at the donation ceremony.

NCL Publications

■ International Joint Research and Training Program for Nation's Memory and Archives Management

Published in Oct. 2017
ISBN: 9789576786372

This book is the proceedings of the International Joint Research and Training Program for Nation's Memory and Archives Management. The workshop invited twelve scholars and experts from Taiwan and abroad to share their techniques and actual experience in managing national memories and documents. A schedule and short introductions of the presenters and the discussants were available. It also contains abstracts and PowerPoint printouts of the twelve lectures.

■ RDA Cataloging Handbook for Audio-visual Resources

Published in Dec. 2017
ISBN: 9789576786389

This handbook is based on RDA and assists librarians in charge of cataloging using the post common MARC 21 format. It assists them to complete each item in a catalog record completely. It is hoped that it can be referenced so that RDA standards and MARC 21 formatting can be used to make records for audio-visual resources.

■ Fascinating Culture of Books

Published in Oct. 2017
ISBN: 9789576786365

The subject of this exhibition is paper, including the invention of papermaking, the origins of written books, the invention and development of printing, book-binding art, among others. The Rare Book Collection of the National Central Library and contemporary publications in Taiwan are also part of the exhibition which allows visitors to learn about the fascinating history of paper culture and to understand the important role played by paper and books in the history of human civilization.