

New Year and shared their experiences of being in Taiwan.

NCL specifically arranged a series of folk songs and folk art performances for this luncheon. The NCL Director-General Shu-hsien Tseng stated in her remarks that she sincerely welcome the foreign scholars come to Taiwan and do their research. MOFA's Department of Policy Planning Director Klement Ruey-sheng Gu also expressed his approval of NCL's promoting international exchanges and helping scholars understand Taiwanese people and traditional culture. Dr. Vradiy Sergey, a Research Fellow from the Institute of History, Archeology and Ethnology of Far-Eastern People in the Far East Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences, was invited to share his insights while conducting research in Taiwan.

Visiting scholars participate the 2019 Chinese New Year Luncheon held by NCL.

■ Tamkang, Soochow and Ming Chuan Universities Pilot Taiwan's First Private University Interlibrary System

On March 27, 2019, Tamkang, Soochow and Ming Chuan Universities announced the creation of the first interlibrary resource-sharing system for Taiwan's private universities. In future, students of the three universities will be able to borrow books from any of the three university libraries. If the pilot is successful, it will be extended to include all twelve private university libraries in the Excellent Long-Established University Consortium of Taiwan (ELECT).
