國家圖書館 National Central Library Annual Report

>> 館長的話

2024 年，在 AI 浪潮影響下，全球圖書館發展呈現出多元且持續變革的態勢，國家圖書館（以下簡稱本館）在承繼過往豐碩基礎上，依循本館 2021-2030 年策略計畫方向，擘劃並實踐各項業務，積極朝向科技整合、服務創新、社群連結與永續發展等方面前進，展現本館國家知識典藏與文化傳播的職責與活力，實踐「知識、文化、學習、體驗、創新、合作」的核心價值。本卷年報彙集 2024 年重要工作成果，以六大施政方針為架構，並輔以「年度統計」及「大事記要」，以記錄一年來館務發展之軌跡。

在國家文獻典藏與加值方面，透過採購、海內外捐贈等管道，積極徵集各界藏書、名家手稿、舊籍文獻，並與多所大學、民間團體、公共圖書館及百年高中簽署合作協議，進行文獻數位保存，以典藏珍貴國家歷史文化記憶。在閱讀推廣方面，「四季閱讀」系列活動，涵蓋多元主題，並加入微講座、走讀及實作等形式，吸引眾多民眾參與。舉辦主題書展、特藏古籍文獻展，並結合共創體驗活動。積極響應世界閱讀日與臺灣閱讀節，舉辦多元閱讀推廣活動。發布年度臺灣閱讀風貌及全民閱讀力報告，分析民眾閱讀習慣並表揚閱讀力績優城市。建置「全國圖書館大數據服務平臺」，整合各類型圖書館數據，為政府、圖書館及出版社提供參考。

在學術研究支援方面，持續優化「臺灣博碩士論文知識加值系統」、「臺灣人文及社會科學引文索引資料庫」及「臺灣期刊論文索引系統」等學術資源網站。博碩士論文系統典藏超過 108 萬筆電子全文，已成為全球最大的華文學位論文免費資料庫。成立「臺灣電子學位論文聯盟」，促進資訊共建共享與國際傳播。受教育部委託，開發「學位論文相似檢測輔助系統」。積極充實期刊數位影像資料，提高臺灣學術期刊能見度。與臺灣大學圖書館合作建置「臺灣鏈結資源系統」，提升資訊組織服務。

國際交流與漢學推廣方面，本館積極參與國際漢學學術社群會議，如美國亞洲研究學會（AAS）年會及歐洲漢學學會（EACS）年會。與國內外學術機構合作舉辦多場國際學術研討會，主題多元。持續經營「漢學研究通訊電子報」與 FB 社群，擴大服務客群。出版《漢學研究》及《漢學研究通訊》等學術刊物。提供「外籍學人來臺研究漢學獎助」及「臺灣獎助金」，獎助國際學者來臺研究。擴大「臺灣漢學資源中心」（TRCCS）及「臺灣學術數位資源中心」（TADRC）全球布局，新增多個據點。參與太平洋鄰里協會（PNC）等國際組織，促進學術交流。拓展 Taiwan Corner，增進各國對臺灣之認識。深化與各國國家圖書館及學術機構之合作，如與法國國家圖書館合作進行古籍數位化。

智慧創新與服務優化方面，本館中山南路館舍持續進行空間再造工程，優化閱讀環境與無障礙設施。打造「多媒體創意實驗中心」，提供民眾研究、創作及交流場域。開發與建置「國家圖書館

出版品送存系統」，便捷出版品送存流程。優化「全國新書資訊網」平台功能，整合 ISBN 申辦服務。

引領圖書館發展方面，本館承教育部指導，辦理公共圖書館系統輔導工作，提供專業建議。研訂《公共圖書館可及性指引》，提升服務品質。辦理多項館員專業知能訓練課程，引進圖書資訊專業思潮與創新經驗，如邀請多倫多大學圖書館館長分享經驗。舉辦「國際東亞圖書館專業館員研習會」，促進國際交流。

展望未來，本館將持續秉持「以人為本，知識為橋」服務理念，精進各項業務，並隨著南部分館暨國家聯合典藏中心新建工程的推進，期許在南臺灣打造全新的知識殿堂，為國家文化發展注入動能。國家圖書館將持續典藏文獻、推廣閱讀、導入科技、創新服務、全球布局、精進專業，成為全民信賴的知識夥伴，與臺灣圖書館界一同邁向智慧未來。

>> From the Director-General

The year 2024, largely marked by the impacts of AI and related technologies, saw libraries around the world undergoing incessant evolution as well as growing increasingly diversified. The National Central Library (NCL), while building on past achievements and following the direction of our strategic plan for 2021–2030, has striven to implement various business services, actively moving towards technological integration, service innovation, community support networks, and sustainable development. In this way, the NCL has demonstrated our responsibility and enthusiasm regarding the maintaining of the nation’s knowledge collection and cultural dissemination, while continuing to realize the six core values of knowledge, culture, learning, experience, innovation, and cooperation. The present 2024 annual report is divided into six parts, supplemented by “Annual Statistics” and “Chronicle of Events,” that describe the achievements and efforts of NCL staff over the past year in pursuit of each of the NCL’s six policy directions, ultimately creating a record of our development.

Regarding the body of national literature and value-added collections, the NCL has remained active in the digital preservation of Taiwan’s national literature as well as historical and cultural memory, literature of which includes the acquisition—whether purchases or donations—of personal collections, manuscripts of notable cultural persons, and ancient texts, as well as other resources acquired from cooperation agreements with institutions, civil society organizations, other libraries, and century-old high schools. With regards to reading promotion, the “Four Seasons Reading” series of events covered a wide range of topics and included micro-lectures, reading-adjacent activities, and hands-on experiences, attracting substantial public participation; themed book exhibitions, special exhibitions centered on rare texts and other cultural relics, as well as other more experiential activities were also organized; and events—seemingly innumerable—were held to celebrate World Book Day and the “Taiwan Reading Festival.” In addition, the NCL once again published the annual Report on the Reading Culture in Taiwan in an effort to analyze public reading habits and to recognize those cities and counties that exhibit a noteworthy reading culture. Finally, continued work on the “National Public Library Big Data Service Platform” aims to integrate data from libraries of any form for government bodies, libraries, and publishers to reference.

In terms of academic research support, the NCL has continued to optimize academic resource platforms such as the “National Digital Library of Theses and Dissertations in Taiwan,” the “Taiwan Citation Index: Humanities and Social Sciences,” and the “Taiwan Periodical Literature (Search for Articles),” with the theses and dissertations system containing more than 1.08 million full-text entries, making it the world's largest free database of said Chinese-language texts. Other efforts include the established "Taiwan Consortium of Electronic Theses and Dissertations," which promotes information sharing and international dissemination; the development of the "WriteAid Similarity Scanner" detection system, supported by the Ministry of Education, for theses and dissertations; digitalizing academic journals published in Taiwan to increase their visibility; and collaborating with the National Taiwan University Library to establish "Linked Open Data Taiwan (LDT) @ Library" to enhance information organization services.

For international exchanges and the advancement of Chinese studies, the NCL continued to participate in related academic activities, notably including the annual conferences of both the Association for Asian Studies (AAS) and the European Association for Chinese Studies (EACS), as well as co-organizing several conferences, workshops, and symposiums with institutes here in Taiwan and abroad on various topics. Alerting interested subscribers to such activities, we have published the Newsletter for Research in Chinese Studies and expanded its social media community. For other publications, Chinese Studies continues to be a prominent academic journal within the field. The NCL also offers the "Research Grant for Foreign Scholars in Chinese Studies" and the "Taiwan Fellowship" to support foreign scholars conducting research in Taiwan. Moving abroad, we have expanded the global footprint of both the "Taiwan Resource Center for Chinese Studies" (TRCCS) and the "Taiwan Academic Digital Resource Center" (TADRC) by adding new centers in 2024. To further promote exchanges, the NCL actively participates in the Pacific Neighborhood Consortium (PNC), among other international organizations, and the "Taiwan Corner" continues to play a role in boosting other countries' understanding of Taiwan. Finally, these exchanges have reached to our collaborative digitization efforts, exemplified by our cooperation with the Bibliothèque nationale de France in the digitization of rare books and ancient texts.

Concerning smart innovation and service optimization, the main branch of the NCL on Zhongshan South Road realized our project to renovate several key spaces, bettering reading environments and accessibility. The previous establishment of the Open Lab Multimedia Center continues to serve as a space for research, creation, and exchange. Finally, the development of the NCL "Publication Repository System" has streamlined the process of submitting publications to the NCL, and in a similar vein, the newly optimized "ISBNnet" platform better integrates ISBN application and issuance services.

The NCL is also committed to being a leader in library development, and with the support of the Ministry of Education (MOE), has taken an advisory role to provide professional advice on library operations. To this end, we have published the Accessibility Guidelines for Public Libraries to improve service quality; organized numerous training courses for librarians and related staff within the field of library and information science, such as inviting the chief librarian of the University of Toronto for a lecture and other exchange activities; and finally, held the “International Seminar for East Asian Library Professional Librarians” to further promote international regional exchange on related topics.

Looking towards the future, the NCL will continue to uphold its service philosophy of “people first with knowledge as a bridge,” striving to improve all aspects of our operations. With the ongoing construction of the Southern Branch of the NCL and National Repository Library, we aim to create a new hub of knowledge in South Taiwan and thus inject new momentum into cultural developments on the national level. Furthermore, the NCL will carry on our core missions of preserving literature, promoting reading, integrating technology, innovating services, expanding globally, and furthering professional librarianship, thereby becoming a trusted knowledge partner and working alongside the library community in Taiwan to embrace a smart future.

Acquisitions of Manuscripts of Notable Cultural Persons

In 2024, manuscripts and paintings by 36 renowned authors, painters, and other prominent figures, such as Cai Shan-teng, Ceng Yong-yi (1941–2022), and Li Hsien-wen, were acquired, totaling 234 items. Moreover, another 21 works of Li’s from Hsiung Shih Art as well as 90 paintings from the collection of writer Shen Ye were donated. Other additions of this nature include those from Chiu Ching-fei of the National Arts Alliance, Taiwanese-language author Liu Ching-liang, and writer Teacher Ming Yue.

In recognition of larger donations from notable persons or of important materials within a specific discipline, the “Writing a River: Donation Ceremony of Chang Chun-hsing’s Manuscripts” was held on March 6. Representatives of Professor Chang’s (1927–2014) family donated 18 boxes of his writings, including manuscripts, lecture outlines, notes, and letters, to the NCL, which were accepted by Director-General Han-Ching Wang.

發布臺灣學術資源能量風貌報告

本館長期致力於保存臺灣重要學術資源，建置「臺灣博碩士論文知識加值系

Analysis of the Capabilities of Taiwan’s Academic Resources

The NCL has long been committed to preserving Taiwan’s academic resources, and to this end, has established the “National Digital Library of Theses and Dissertations in Taiwan,” “Taiwan Citation Index: Humanities and Social Sciences,” and “Taiwan Periodical Literature” search databases, which have proven to be some of the most important academic resource platforms in Taiwan. By analyzing the data of these databases through 2023, the NCL has been able to measure the utilization of Taiwan’s academic resources, such as theses and dissertations, journals, and other forms of literature, as well as better understand trends in research themes by analyzing citation and keyword statistics. Based on these conclusions, the NCL published the 2023 Capabilities of Taiwan’s Academic Resources Report, which was officially released on April 26.

統」、「臺灣人文及社會科學引文索引資料庫」及「臺灣期刊論文索引系統」，為國內重要學術資源網站。本館利用此三大系統 2023 年之資料數據，統計典藏的學位論文及期刊文獻之授權及讀者使用情形、觀察論文及期刊被引用的傳播歷程、分析期刊及論文使用的關鍵詞彙，了解熱門研究主題等，出版《112 年臺灣學術資源能量風貌報告》，並於 4 月 26 日舉辦發布會。

The release event was held at the NCL and was attended by more than 260 representatives of university libraries and academic publishers, parties of which eagerly awaited analyses into the academic resources available to support research in Taiwan.

本館職司國家文獻之蒐集與典藏，國內任何主題、語文或資料類型的文獻透過送存制度予以徵集，此外，為滿足不同服務對象之資訊需求及提升學術研究水準，運用採購、贈送及交換等多種徵集途徑有系統地蒐藏可供學術研究及產業發展借鏡的外國文獻。2024 年至 12 月底透過各種途徑徵集而來的館藏計一般出版品中文圖書 4 萬 1,481 冊，外文圖書 2 萬 4,848 冊；政府出版品、研討會論文集、升等著作與委託研究報告等 9,209 冊；學位論文 5 萬 8,021 冊；非書資料 1 萬 7,504 件；電子書 3 萬 7,062；期刊 3,217 種及報紙 47 種。

Acquiring and Preserving National Literature and Documents through Diverse Channels

One of the primary missions of the NCL is the preserving of national literature and documents, which—regardless of subject, language, or form—are collected through a repository system. Additionally, to better meet the information needs of different users and bolster academic research standards, foreign-language literature and documents that can be used as references for research and industry development are systematically collected through various channels, including direct purchases, donations, and exchanges. As of December 2024, our collection has significantly increased by operating through said channels: 41,481 volumes of Chinese-language books and materials; 24,848 volumes of Foreign-language books and materials; 9,209 volumes of government publications, conference proceedings, and commissioned reports; 58,021 theses and dissertations; 17,504 non-book items; 37,062 e-books; 3,217 periodicals and magazines; and 47 newspapers.

本館四季閱讀系列活動，關注文化、歷史、商業等閱讀議題，場場講座皆獲得參與民眾熱烈迴響。2024 年各季主題分別為春天讀詩節「春風得意馬蹄疾——以詩歌解鎖人生成就」、夏季講座為「獅吼——臺灣美術史的時代與追隨者」、秋季講座為「印象經典——古典藝術裡的意象」及冬季講座為「冬季閱讀：紙的科學」，自秋季閱讀講座開始，更加入微講座場次，

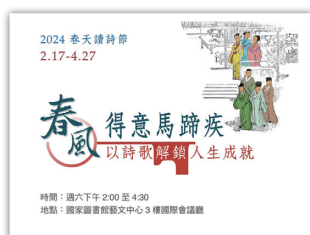

Integration of Reading and Daily Life

“Four Seasons Reading”: Lectures on Chinese and Foreign-Language Classics

The annual “Four Seasons Reading” lecture series, focused on culture, history, business, and other topics, held by the NCL continues to receive an enthusiastic response from the public. In 2024, the spring lecture period, “Pleasing as a Spring Breeze: Unlocking Life Accomplishments Through Poetry,” revolved around reading poetry; the summer period was titled “Roar of the Lion: The Era and Adherents of Taiwanese Art History”; the fall period concerned “Impressionable Classics: Imagery in Classical

舉辦「文植彬彬——古人的植感生活」特藏古籍文獻展

“Culture and Flora: The Plant-Inspired Lifestyle of the Ancient Past” Special Collections Exhibition

本展覽以深入淺出的角度詮釋本館古籍，藉由活潑且具美感的設計，以及情境式的展場布置，喚起參觀者的興趣，令參觀者覺得古籍與自身的生活十分貼近。此外，融合共創的概念，在展場中提供體驗共同創作樂趣的空間，例如尋寶遊戲、標本製作及故事葉片留言樹等，鼓勵參觀者表達想法，促成雙向的知識建構場域。

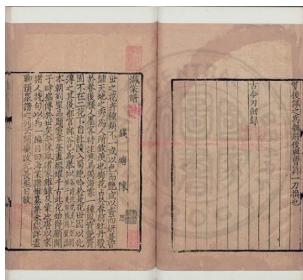

The “Culture and Flora” exhibition attempted to interpret several ancient texts held by the NCL in an accessible and engaging manner, namely adopting a vibrant and aesthetically pleasing design—coupled with immersive exhibition layouts—to make visitors feel that ancient texts are closely connected to our daily lives. Additionally, collaborative creation was a central concept. The exhibition space offered co-creation activities such as treasure hunts, making specimens, and a story tree comprised of leaf messages, all of which encouraged visitors to express their creativity and build a multidirectional knowledge environment.

此外，為強化古籍文獻展成效，本此展覽與荒野保護協會合作，特別推出「國圖植物園」物種蒐集競賽活動，邀請讀者在循著書香認識植物後，持續在生活中關懷植物生態。本次合作計畫包括 1 場教育訓練課程及 1 場為期 1 個半月的競賽活動，透過蒐集物種資料平臺 iNaturalist，一同蒐集本館周邊的動植物物種。統計至 10 月 23 日展覽結束，計有 2,038 次參觀人次。

To further promote the exhibition, the NCL in collaboration with the Society of Wilderness launched the “NCL Botanical Garden,” a friendly plant-collecting competition aimed at inviting visitors to care for plant ecology in our own daily lives after learning about flora from ancient perspectives. This collaborative project included educational training courses and a one-and-a-half-month competition, in which participants used the platform iNaturalist to collect data on flora around the NCL. The exhibition concluded on October 23 with a total of 2,038 visitors.

An International Reading Brand: The “Taiwan Reading Festival”

The year 2024 marked the twelfth “Taiwan Reading Festival,” a two-day event held at the National Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Hall which was organized by more than 130 parties and saw 200 booths: public libraries, university libraries, government entities concerning cultural and social education, middle and elementary schools, publishers, and other non-governmental organizations. Participants also included numerous embassies and cultural offices, including Embassy of Belize, Embassy of Saint Lucia, Embassy of Saint Kitts and Nevis, Mexican Trade Services Documentation and Cultural Office, French Office in Taipei, Czech Economic and Cultural Office, Polish Office in Taipei, Goethe-Institute Taipei, European Union Centre in Taiwan, Saudi Arabian Trade Office, and Japan-Taiwan Exchange Association, among others. Together, a variety of innovative reading activities that combined the STREAM fields, bilingual education, and international culture were held. In addition to our more classic booths that are organized year to year, such as “Fun to Read: Happy Gathering,” “Joyful Storytelling Villages,” “The World Symphony of Reading Enjoyment,” “Little Book-Lovers’ World,” “Happy Creation Base: OPEN LAB,” “Reading Market,” “Museum Wonderland,” “Library Trail,” “Youth Campus,” “Mobile Library Display,” and “Festive Flight Frenzy,” the 2024 rendition introduced three new co-creative activities revolving around the theme “Reading Creates the Future”: “Paint Your Identity,” “Dreams in Pieces: A Collaborative Collage,” and “Colorful Wings: Soaring Dreams Together.” The above booths and activities, working in concert, invited visitors to participate in collective creation, find creative inspiration, and enrich their own personal reading culture.

另，邀請國際圖書館設置閱讀活動攤位，有韓國國家圖書館國家兒童少年圖書館、菲律賓國家圖書館、泰國國家圖書館之國際專業館員來臺設置攤位進行交流，讓民眾體驗國際圖書館的閱讀活動，各圖書館館員學習它館閱讀推廣經驗。

為讓全國公共圖書館館員掌握推動早期素養之精神，藉由閱讀節的全國性閱讀活動，擴大推動早期素養，由本館發展具開創性之全國「小小愛書人」實施計畫，提供活動操作的行動方案，並補助各縣市活動辦理經費，透過說、唱、讀、寫、玩

Furthermore, libraries from across the world were invited to set up their own reading booths. Librarians and staff from the National Library for Children and Young Adults of the National Library of Korea, the National Library of the Philippines, and the National Library of Thailand participated in the “Taiwan Reading Festival” as well as in exchanges, allowing all parties to learn from one another’s experiences regarding the promotion of reading.

Promoting National Early Literacy: “Little Book-Lovers’ World”

To enable public librarians and related staff across the nation to better grasp the spirit of promoting early literacy, through the reading activities of the “Taipei Reading Festival,” the NCL has developed the national “Little Book Lovers” implementation program, providing action plans and subsidizing expenses at the city and county levels.

活動的設計與活動的帶領，讓幼兒做好正式開始閱讀前的準備，接觸文字及書本，讓孩子成為小小愛書人。全國小小愛書人活動自辦理以來合作縣市與圖書館逐年成長，2020 年 14 縣市 40 館，2021 年 18 縣市 48 館，2022 年 16 縣市 47 館，2023 年 16 縣市 56 館，2024 年 18 縣市 55 館。

Through activities designed around speaking, singing, reading, writing, and play, the aim is to help young children prepare for formal reading, expose them to the written word and books, ultimately nurturing them into little book-lovers. Since its inauguration, the program has seen a steady increase in participation: 40 libraries in 14 cities and counties (2020); 48 libraries in 18 cities and counties (2021); 47 libraries in 16 cities and counties (2022); 56 libraries in 16 cities and counties (2023); and 55 libraries in 18 cities and counties (2024).

Promoting a National Shared Catalog

建置「全國圖書書目資訊網」

The “National Bibliography Information Network”

為推動全國書目共建共享，本館建立「全國圖書書目資訊網」（簡稱 NBINet）以「一館編目，多館分享」之目標與國內圖書館合作編目建置書目及權威紀錄，發展全國聯合目錄。2024 年資料庫新增書目紀錄 46 萬 8,631 筆、館藏紀錄 71 萬 750 筆；NBINet 書目紀錄累計逾 1,660 萬，權威紀錄累計逾 72 萬。全年資料庫查詢逾 772 萬次，轉出紀錄 13 萬餘筆。

With the aim of “one library catalog shared by many,” the NCL continues to promote a national shared catalog, namely the “National Bibliographic Information Network” (NBINet), which has been developed by integrating the catalogues of libraries throughout Taiwan. In 2024, NBINet newly added 468,631 catalogue entries and 710,750 collections records, amounting to more than 16.6 million records and 720,000 authority records. There were more than 7.7 million database searches and 130,000 export records.

為提升書目的多樣性及反映更多圖書館的館藏情形，持續每年邀請新合作單位加入。本年度新增 3 所合作館，合作館共計 121 所，除本館之外，還包括 75 所大學圖書館，26 所專門圖書館及 19 所公共圖書館。本年度「全國圖書書目資訊網」合作館館長會議於 11 月 15 日召開。鑒於近年來生成式 AI 的快速發展，對各行各

To further diversify our collection and better reflect the collections of libraries more broadly, the NCL continues to invite new partner institutions. In 2024, three new partner libraries were added, bringing the total number to 121. In addition to the NCL, this includes 75 university libraries, 26 specialized libraries, and 19 public libraries. To mark these efforts, a ceremony was held on November 15 to present

辦理全國圖書書目資訊網合作編目研習

高品質書目紀錄的產生有賴於優質的編目員，優質編目員的培養有賴於完善的編目訓練。近幾年各類型合作館普遍面臨編目人員更替銜接的過渡期，同時也為因應國際編目規範的變革，本館每年辦理合作編目研習會，2024 年度教育訓練業於6月12日舉行。課程安排以「AI 與合作編目」為主題，包括：「利用人工智能產生國會圖書館主題詞」、「AI 編目員的時代來了嗎」、「生成式 AI 在資訊組織的應

The “National Bibliographic Information Network (NBINet) Cooperative Cataloging Workshop”

Establishing high-quality bibliographic records relies on skilled catalogers, and naturally, the training of skilled cataloging staff depends on comprehensive training. In recent years, participating libraries in the “National Bibliographic Information Network” (NBINet) have generally faced transitional periods of cataloging staff turnover, and at the same time, international cataloging standards continue to evolve. The NCL thus holds an annual “NBINet Cooperative Cataloging Workshop,” with the 2024 rendition being on June 12. Workshop contents

為確保數位資源能夠永久保存和持續使用，不因人為因素或自然因素而丟失或損壞，不因軟硬體進步、設備更換等原因而無法繼續使用，本館推進全國數位資源保存合作工作，包括：成立全國數位資源保存合作小組、推動國家數位資源保存合作、成立國家數位資源保存中心及建立數位資源保存系統。

本館將於南部分館設立「全國數位資源保存中心」，推動全國數位資源合作

Nationwide Preservation of Digital Resources

To ensure that digital resources can be permanently preserved and used without being lost or damaged due to any number of factors, even advances in software and hardware, the NCL has been promoting cooperation on the national level regarding digital resources preservation, including forming a related division, establishing the National Digital Resources Preservation Center, and constructing related systems and infrastructure.

To this end, the National Digital Resources Preservation Center has been established at the South

保存事務，積極邀請國內各典藏機構或出版社參與合作，透過合作保存機制蒐集數位資源，經由系統化的管理機制予以長期保存，以期達成保存國家重要數位文化知識、制定數位物件相關詮釋資料及規範、提供全國數位物件長期保存的設備環境及維護管理之任務。截至 2024 年計有 8 個機構參與合作計畫，包括：國立臺灣大學圖書館、國立清華大學、國立臺灣師範大學圖書館、國立陽明交通大學、國立公共資訊圖書館、國立臺灣圖書館、臺灣學術電子書及資料庫聯盟、允晨文化。

另，2021 年起啟動為期 3 年的系統建置工作，已完成全案軟硬體設備建置及 17 項數位資源導入工作，2024 年新增上傳數位物件數共計 502 萬 3,620 筆（910 萬 6,736 個檔案）。累計上傳 674 萬 9,184 筆（1,517 萬 9,589 個檔案）。

本館自 2002 年起推動數位典藏國家型科技計畫，至今已進行 20 餘年，完成中文古籍善本數位化逾 96%，2024 年完成中文古籍數位化 1,160 冊，並將數位影像上傳至本館「古籍與特藏文獻資源平臺」之「古籍影像檢索系統」，全面開放供社會大眾檢索利用，供學術界及圖書館同道

Branch of the NCL, which is inviting the repositories of institutions and publishers here in Taiwan to participate, namely the long-term preservation of digital resources through systematic management mechanisms. Goals include the preservation of important national cultural knowledge, establishing interpretation data and standards concerning digital items, as well as providing the equipment, environment, and maintenance management necessary for such long-term preservation. As of 2024, there are eight cooperating partners: National Taiwan University Library, National Tsing Hua University, National Taiwan Normal University Library, National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University, National Library of Public Information, National Taiwan Library, Taiwan Academic E-Book & Database Consortium (TAEBEC), and the publisher Asian Culture.

In 2021, a three-year plan to construct the above system and infrastructure was initialized, and the installation of all hardware and software equipment as well as seventeen digital resources practices have been completed. In 2024, 5,023,620 digital entries (9,106,736 files) were newly added, bringing the total to 6,749,184 digital entries (15,179,589 files).

Establishing a Platform for the Digitization of Rare Books and Special Collections

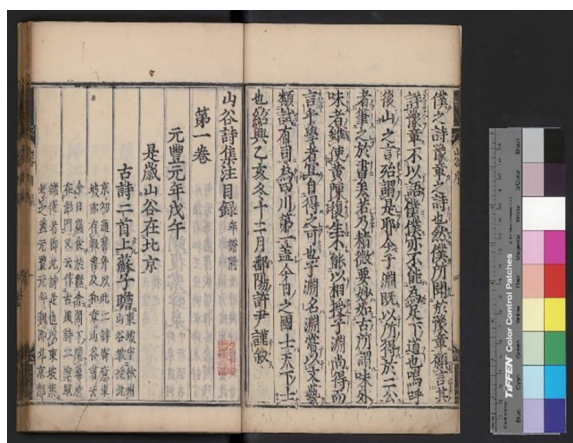

Since 2002, the NCL has been engaged in the “Project of Nation-wide Digitization of Library Collections.” As of 2024, we have completed the digitization of over 96% of Chinese-language rare books, with 1,160 volumes being digitized in 2024 alone. The images have been uploaded to the “Digital Images” search of the “Rare Books and Special Collections” resource platform, making them

進行書目及版本之比對研究。總計於該系統開放提供 750 萬以上影幅提供讀者檢索應用。2024 年度完成手稿掃描數位化 1 萬 7,600 影幅、畫作拍攝數位化 45 影幅及數位 metadata 著錄 1,740 筆，上傳至「當代名人手稿典藏系統」之手稿影幅數已逾 18 萬。 fully accessible to the general public as well as including functionality which allows researchers and library staff to conduct comparative studies on bibliographies and specific editions. A total of more than 7.5 million images are now available through the system. In 2024, 17,600 images of manuscripts were scanned, 45 paintings were photographed, and 1,740 metadata records were created and uploaded to the “Contemporary Celebrities’ Manuscripts” platform, bringing the total number of manuscript images to more than 180,000.

Additionally, regarding the NCL’s collection of rare Western books a century or more old, totaling about 5,000 volumes. In 2024, we completed the digitization of 400 volumes, and excluding multi-volume sets, over 85% of the collection has now been completed. The related images have been uploaded to the “Western Rare Books” search also of the “Rare Books and Special Collections” resource platform, making them fully accessible. It is hoped that through the establishment of this platform, the Western rare books and manuscripts held by the NCL can become a more distinctive portion of our collection, even facilitating the research of scholars worldwide.

Zi haizhu benbian: Taiwan juan (Pearls of Masters and Philosophers: Volume on Taiwan), in Volume 31 of Shi jing (History as a Mirror) 2, with the Commercial Press, Taiwan

延續本館出版古籍經典的傳統，8月與臺灣商務合作出版《史鏡》第二輯31冊，以史部為主題，蒐羅《四庫全書》未嘗收錄之書籍。本館授權臺灣商務印書館出版之《子海珍本編·臺灣卷—國家圖書館珍藏子部善本第一～二輯》，因深受海外喜愛，申請再刷各10套。

Continuing our tradition of publishing rare books and ancient classics, the NCL collaborated with the Commercial Press, Taiwan, to publish the second series of Shi jing (History as a Mirror), totaling 31 volumes), which focuses on texts not included in Siku quanshu (Complete Library of the Four Treasuries). The Commercial Press was authorized to publish Pearls of Masters and Philosophers: Volume on Taiwan. Due to its popularity abroad, we have already requested a reprint of ten sets.

與越南河內大學合作出版《貢草園集》

Gong caoyuan ji (Anthology of Gong Garden), with Hanoi University

本館特藏之孤本《貢草園集》，為越南明命皇第47子綿居之遺作該書卷首扉葉右上小字題印「嗣德甲寅」，為清咸豐4年、西元1854年出版，曾藏於晚清知名藏家潘祖蔭「滂喜齋」，具有高度的文史價值。本館與越南河內國家大學所屬社會人文科學大學於2023年簽署合作備忘錄，開啟本館首次與國外學術研究單位合作出版開端，並於2024年底出版。

Anthology of Gong Garden, the only surviving copy of which is held by the NCL, is the posthumous work of Nguyễn Phúc Miên Cư (1829–1854), forty-seventh son of Emperor Minh Mạng (r. 1820–1839) of the Nguyễn dynasty of Vietnam. The inscription in the top right corner indicates that it was published in 1854. Formerly housed in the Pangxi Studio collection of renowned late Qing dynasty collector Pan Zuyin (1830–1890), the work is of great historical and cultural value. In 2023, the NCL signed an agreement with the Hanoi University of Social Sciences and Humanities, marking our first collaboration with a foreign academic research institution on a publication, the work of which was published at the end of 2024.

本館於 2018 年授權聯經出版公司出版之《金剛般若波羅蜜經》（簡稱《金剛經》）出版後長年熱銷，多年來為國庫增益回饋金近 200 萬元。該部經典持續熱銷，與出版社之合約屆期後，該公司於本年 9 月申請續約並再刷，新約延續至 2027 年 8 月 31 日止，期盼能再創出版佳績。此外，財團法人臺灣好文化基金會於 2024 年 10 月 25 日至 2025 年 3 月 2 日於臺東縣池上穀倉藝術館舉辦「金剛經·諸相非相」展覽，向本館借展聯經出版公司出版之雙色套印《金剛經》復刻本（大），讓大眾得以一睹經典史籍，擴大古籍經典之影響力。

Reprint of the Diamond Sutra, with Linking Publishing

In 2018, the NCL authorized Linking Publishing to publish the Diamond Sutra, which has been a long-term bestseller, generating nearly 2 million dollars in royalties for the national treasury. Hoping to achieve further publishing success, a contract renewal to reprint the work was approved in September, with the new terms running until August 31, 2027. Additionally, the Lovely Taiwan Foundation held the “Diamond Sutra: Beyond All Illusions” exhibition at the Chishang Barn Art Museum in Taitung from October 25, 2024, to March 2, 2025. The exhibition featured a large-sized reprint of the Diamond Sutra produced by Linking, which has been borrowed from the NCL, expanding the text’s already remarkable influence.

2024 年本館於特色資源的徵集工作獲得豐富成果，與學校、機關及民間團體等簽署合作數位化協議，徵集標的包括北港朝天宮之大量自清代至民國 70 年代廟務及地方相關珍貴文獻、北一女中之日治時期的畢業紀念冊及校史文獻、張萬傳畫家珍貴照片及相關文獻等。對臺灣文史紀錄的長期保存、文化資源的共享、學術研究的推動等方面均具有深遠的意義，更有助於促進社會對臺灣文化歷史的理解和關注。

Furthering the Digital Archives and Preserving Taiwanese Culture

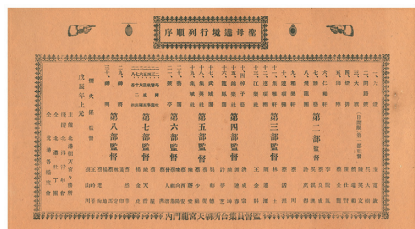

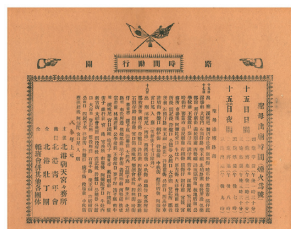

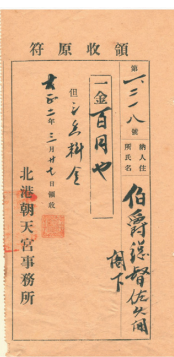

Acquiring Cultural Resources

In 2024, the NCL realized significant results in our efforts to acquire unique resources by signing digitalization cooperation agreements with schools, government agencies, and non-governmental organizations. The materials include a large number of documents related to temple affairs and local history stretching from the Qing dynasty to the 1980s from Beigang Chaotian Temple, yearbooks and school history documents during the period of Japanese colonial rule from Taipei First Girls High School, and photographs and related documents of painter Chang Wan-chuan (1909–2003). Initiatives such as these agreements have far-reaching significance in terms of the preservation of Taiwan’s cultural and historical records, the sharing of cultural resources, as well as the promotion of both academic research and the general public's understanding and attention to the cultural history of Taiwan.

透過與機關學校合作廣徵舊籍及史料文獻，2015年啟動全國性的「臺灣文獻合作數位化計畫」及2019年的「臺灣百年高中合作舊籍典藏及數位化計畫」，廣邀國內各大學圖書館、公共圖書館、政府機關、研究機構、百年高中等加入合作計畫，積極徵集1911年至1949年出版舊籍，並進行數位化作業。

Collaborative Projects to Digitize Old Books and Historical Materials

The NCL continued its efforts concerning the “Project of Collaboratively Digitizing Taiwan’s Historical Writings” and the “Project of Collaboratively Digitizing Taiwan’s Century-Old High Schools’ Library Collections,” which were respectively launched in 2015 and 2019, inviting university libraries, public libraries, government agencies, research institutes, and century-old high schools to join said projects in the spirit of collaboration by collecting and 「臺灣文獻合作數位化計畫」計畫已於 2023 年底結束。為持續推動臺灣舊籍史料徵集與保存，2024 年本館與國立成功大學、國立宜蘭大學、國立中興大學及國立屏東科技大學 4 所百年大學簽署合作。總合作數位化成果上傳「臺灣華文電子書庫」或「臺灣記憶系統」等資料庫，開放公眾利用，累計已掃描 1 萬 5,344 冊，共 283 萬 4,948 影幅。

自 2019 年 6 月 30 日起辦理「百年高中圖書館合作『舊籍典藏數位化』及『百年學校記憶』座談會」，已獲授權同意之合作單位，包括建國中學、虎尾高中、新竹女中、新竹高中、臺中女中、臺南一中、臺南二中、臺南女中、高雄中學、花蓮女中、彰化女中、基隆女中及屏東高中 13 所合作學校，持續進行合作單位之舊籍數位化，截至 2024 年底累計已掃描 6,107 冊，共 177 萬 7,053 影幅。 digitizing books published in Taiwan from 1911 to 1949.

The “Project of Collaboratively Digitizing Taiwan’s Historical Writings” was completed at the end of 2023. Nonetheless, to continue digitization efforts, in 2024, the NCL signed cooperation agreements with four century-old universities: National Cheng Kung University, National Ilan University, National Chung Hsing University, and National Pingtung University of Science and Technology. The total digitization results have been uploaded to databases such as the “Taiwan Chinese E-book Repository” or the “Taiwan Memory System,” making them available to the public. To date, a total of 15,344 volumes have been scanned, amounting to 2,834,948 images. Our efforts have been uploaded to various databases such as “Taiwan eBook” and “Taiwan Memory,” making them available to the general public. As of 2024, a total of 15,344 volumes have been scanned, amounting to 2,834,948 images.

Since the launch of this project in June 2019, the NCL has collaborated with Jianguo High School, Huwei Senior High School, Hsinchu Girls’ Senior High School, Hsinchu Senior High School, Taichung Girls’ Senior High School, Tainan First Senior High School, Tainan Second Senior High School, Tainan Girls’ Senior High School, Kaohsiung Senior High School, Hualien Girls’ High School, Changhua Girls’ Senior High School, Keelung Girls’ Senior High School, and Pingtung Senior High School in an effort to digitize their library collections. As of 2024, 6,107 volumes, or 1,777,053 images, have been scanned.

The “Taiwan Consortium of Electronic Theses and Dissertations” and Furthering Academic Dissemination Entrusted by the Ministry of Education (MOE), the NCL has established the “National Digital Library of Theses and Dissertations in Taiwan” to acquire and preserve all theses and dissertations of graduating students from universities throughout Taiwan since 1956. With open access and collaboration as core tenets, the platform promotes the sharing of thesis information among universities and degree programs in Taiwan. By the end of 2024, the platform has collected nearly 1.48 million bibliographies and 1,086,363 full e-texts, with more than 810,000 of those being authorized for download, making it the world’s largest free database of Chinese-language degree theses and dissertations. Electronic Theses and Dissertations” was established to highlight the international academic visibility and influence of consortium members, namely e-texts with open access, as well as providing a platform for exchange between participating institutions through annual meetings. The 2024 consortium annual meeting was held in collaboration with National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University on November 22. Associate Research Fellow Ma Wei-Yun of the Institute of Information Science, Academia Sinica, was invited to lecture on “New Paradigms in Information Retrieval: The Impact and Application of Conversational Artificial Intelligence on Thesis and Dissertation Systems.” The librarians and related staff of National Taiwan University of Science and Technology, Tamkang University, and Fu Jen Catholic University were also invited to share related experiences. To further international academic dissemination and exchange as well as being a long-standing member of the international organization Networked Digital Library of Theses and Dissertations (NDLTD), the NCL has shared 1,167,835 bibliographic records available for retrieval on the platform. Ultimately, the goal is to internationalize the bibliographic information of theses and dissertations, thereby realizing higher visibility and citation rates.

教育部於 2022 年委託本館及國立臺灣師範大學技術團隊，以「臺灣博碩士論文知識加值系統」之資料為基礎，開發「學位論文相似檢測輔助系統」，提供全國大專校院使用。本系統旨在提供全國各大專校院研究生論文相似檢測輔助工具，協助及促進研究生自主學習學位論文學術寫作技巧。為提供上線前之系統測試及營運服務測試，系統辦理二次試營運。2022 年 11 月 1 日至 2023 年 2 月 28 日進行第一次系統試營運，針對系統介面功能進行試營運，以瞭解使用者的反應，並演練如何與各校合作配合推廣此系統。第二次試營運自 2024 年 6 月 1 日起至 8 月 31 日止，由 21 所大學自由參加。總共有 5,527 名使用者啟用了帳號，這其中包括了 64 名各校管理員，以及 5,463 名碩博士生，有 2,834 名碩博士生至少進行了一次論文檢測，總檢測次數為 4,038 篇。

Establishing the “WriteAid Similarity Scanner” Detection System for Theses and Dissertations

In 2022, the NCL and National Taiwan Normal University were entrusted by the Ministry of Education (MOE) to develop the “WriteAid Similarity Scanner,” which is based on the “National Digital Library of Theses and Dissertations in Taiwan,” for use by all universities in Taiwan. This system is designed to compare theses and dissertations, technical reports, and practical reports, and to detect similarities, thereby assisting and promoting graduate students’ independent learning of academic writing skills. For the purposes of system testing prior to launch, it was in operation on a second wave of trial basis. The first, held from November 1, 2022, to February 28, 2023, collected user feedback to improve functionality, as well as practiced how best to cooperate with universities to promote the system. The second wave, June 1 to August 31, 2024, benefited from the voluntary participation of twenty-one universities. A total of 5,527 users activated accounts, including 64 administrators and 5,463 master’s and doctoral students. Of them, 2,834 students conducted at least one scan, with the total reaching 4,038 operations.

為期 3 天的營隊課程內容包含「學思歷程分享」、「AI 與學術倫理」、「研究方法」、「學術論文寫作」、「圖書館及學術資源介紹」、「研究論文實作與發表」等。其中增加「AI 與學術倫理」課程，以順應現今生成式 AI 服務的興起，特別指導學生注重學術倫理。

The “Young Scholars Cultivation Workshop”: Advancing Research Skills in High School Students

Since summer 2015, the NCL has organized the “Young Scholars Cultivation Workshop” designed for senior high school and vocational students throughout Taiwan. In 2024, the workshop entered its tenth year, with one session held in southern Taiwan (National Sun Yat-sen University, July 17–19) and a second in central Taiwan (National Chung Hsing University, August 7–9). A total of 107 participants attended the workshop.

The three-day workshop course contents included “Sharing Learning and Thinking Experiences,” “AI and Academic Ethics,” “Research Methodologies,” “Academic Writing,” “Introduction to Libraries and Academic Resources,” and “Writing and Publishing Research.” Among the topics, “AI and Academic Ethics” was newly added to respond to trends in generative AI services, guiding participants on how to navigate AI and standards in academic ethics.

本館為提供圖書資訊專業線上數位學習平臺，於 89 年 12 月建置「遠距學園」

The “NCL E-Learning Campus”: Optimizing Digital Learning

To provide a professional online digital learning platform centered on library and information science,

(<https://cu.ncl.edu.tw>) 做為全國圖書館遠距教學的基礎。因應科技日新月異及資訊安全之要求，2024 年進行平臺的整體升級，以提供學習者跨載具便利學習的友善環境。

「遠距學園」數位學習平臺主要為提供圖書館員職涯自主進修學習，同時也是一般民眾提升資訊利用素養的便捷管道。本館持續結合圖書資訊專業學會、各大學圖書資訊系所及各類型圖書館、教育單位、政府機構共同發展數位教學課程，期能為圖書館員及社會大眾提供繼續教育數位學習的優質環境。2024 年合計開設公教人員認證課程 125 堂；上課人次計有 5 萬 442 人次；完成學習認證時數共計 3 萬 5,237 小時。

2024 年遠距學園結合 AI 發展趨勢，邀請相關學科專家錄製 4 堂 AI 知能課程：(1) 運用設計思考開發圖書館 AI 新創服務；(2) 深入探討 Big Data、AI 及生成式 AI 的關聯與應用；(3) 與 AI 的多元對話：探討語言 AI 技術在圖書館的應用服務；(4) AI 創作與智慧財產權的挑戰，以提供圖書館作為創新服務規劃之參考。

we established the “NCL E-Learning Campus” (<https://cu.ncl.edu.tw>) in December 2000 to serve as a foundation of online learning for libraries throughout Taiwan. Due to advancements in technology and information security requirements, the platform underwent a comprehensive upgrade in 2024 to provide learners with a user-friendly environment and improved cross-device learning.

The “NCL E-Learning Campus” also provides librarians with self-directed learning opportunities for career development and to improve the literacy of the general public in information utilization. The platform, in hopes of promoting continuing education, has been co-developed with and includes the digital learning courses of the Association of Library and Information Professionals, departments concerning library and information science and libraries of any form at universities, other educational institutions, and government agencies. A total of 125 certification courses were on offer in 2024, with a number of 50,442 attendees who completed a total of 35,237 accredited hours.

Regarding course contents, the “NCL E-Learning Campus” in 2024 further integrated trends in AI development and invited experts from relevant fields to record four courses to provide libraries with references for innovative service planning: (1) “Application of Design Thinking to Develop Innovative AI Library Services”; (2) “Exploring the Connections and Applications of Big Data, AI, and Generative AI”; (3) “Diverse Dialogues with AI: Applications of Language AI Technology in Library Services”; (4) “Challenges in AI Creation and Intellectual Property Rights.”

Furthermore, in an effort to further promote the courses of the “NCL E-Learning Campus,” the NCL organized the seasonal events “Spring Discovery: 2024 Learning Never Stops Digital Learning Activities,” “Fall Inspiration: Boundless Knowledge,” and “Winter Departure: Knowledge Integration.”

Report on the Reading Culture in Taiwan

《112年臺灣閱讀風貌及全民閱讀力年度報告》於3月27日舉辦發布記者會，藉由統計分析2所國立公共圖書館及全國22縣市圖書館2022年的圖書館服務數據，呈現臺灣民眾在圖書借閱人次、圖書借閱冊數、到館人次、電子書借閱人次、累積辦證數、網站使用人次等閱讀力消長概況；並從3,528萬人次借閱圖書的讀者紀錄中，分析不同年齡層、不同性別的閱讀量與閱讀興趣；再從1億2,723萬筆的圖書借閱紀錄中，篩選、統計圖書的借閱次數，編製整理2023年圖書借閱年度排行榜。

在閱讀力表現績優城市部分，以各縣市與鄉鎮市之「人均擁書冊數」、「人均借閱冊數」、「人均到館次數」、「民眾持證比例」、「人均資源投入經費」、「人均館舍使用面積」及「人均網站使用次數」等數值，以作為檢視圖書館在培育民眾閱讀力的重要指標，藉由上述指標之分析，分別頒予「整體閱讀力表現績優城市」、「閱讀力分項表現績優城市——民眾擁書冊數表現、民眾每人借閱冊數表現、民眾每人到館次數表現、民眾持證比例表現」等獎項，共計142個單位獲得上述獎項。

Based on data gathered in 2023 from the two national and twenty-two county or municipal libraries on the general public's use of library resources and services in Taiwan, the NCL held a press conference on March 27 to release the 2023 Report on the Reading Culture in Taiwan, which analyzes the growth and/or decline of reading in terms of the number of book borrowers, books borrowed, library visits, e-book borrowers, library card applications, and website users. Moreover, the report surveys 35.28 million book circulation records from 2023, analyzing the reading volume and interests of different age groups and genders, and filters 127.23million circulation records to compile an annual ranking of most borrowed books.

For cities that have exhibited a particularly robust reading culture—indicated by number of books possessed per capita, number of books borrowed per capita, number of library visits per capita, proportion of residents holding a library card, expenditures on resources per capita, area of usable space per capita, and number of website visits per capita, all of which demonstrate the library's role in cultivating reading culture—the “Top Overall Performing City in Reading Culture” and “Top Categorical Performing City in Reading Culture,” with categories including number of books owned by the public, average number of books borrowed per person, average number of library visits per person, and proportion of residents holding a library card, were awarded to 142 recipients.

建置全國圖書館大數據服務平臺

為國內首個彙集各類型圖書館營運服務統計及公共圖書館去識別化閱讀興趣資料等數據資料的大數據服務平臺，透過整合性的平臺，將可全面性分析各縣市民眾閱讀風貌與閱讀興趣，並可提供政府、圖書館及出版社作為相關政策釐訂、圖書館閱讀推廣、館藏採購及出版方向策訂等參考。2024 年進行閱讀興趣資料之探勘與脈絡分析，透過 LDA 與 K-means 分群，打破圖書分類架構，分析民眾閱讀興趣。

The “National Public Library Big Data Service Platform”

As the first platform of its kind in Taiwan to collect statistics on the operation and services of libraries of any form and de-identified data on reading trends, the “National Library Big Data Service Platform” is capable of comprehensively analyzing the reading habits of the general public in each city and county, thereby providing government bodies, libraries, and publishers with references for policy-making, reading promotion, collection acquisition, and publication planning. In 2024, the NCL carried out a survey and collated analysis, and by employing LDA and K-means clustering, moved beyond the more traditional library classification frameworks to analyze reading interests.

Innovative User-Oriented Services

優化館舍空間，打造智慧閱讀環境

本館中山南路館舍於 1986 年 9 月 28 日啟用，已歷經 30 餘年，為提供讀者更為優質友善的服務空間，於 2020 年 6 月向行政院提出「國立社教機構環境優化・服務躍升計畫」4 年期中程計畫，奉核定補助經費 1 億 3,765 萬元。計畫執行期程為 2021 年 1 月 1 日至 2024 年 12 月 31 日，內容包括國圖形象再造的「館舍外牆換裝與通用環境建置計畫」，以及 3 項空間優化子計畫：「寰宇漢學交流與展示智慧服務空間計畫」、「打造主題展示與創新互動閱讀空間計畫」及「讀者學習空間優質計畫」。2024 年完成空間再造工程包括：改善因建築物老舊造成的漏水、外牆壁磚掉落等問題。美化戶外照明與植栽。增加特藏、漢學及期刊實體展示空間，促進館藏利用。建置無障礙升降平臺，提供友善使用環境。完成 2 至 3 樓空間改造及優化，提供舒適閱讀環境。

Spatial Optimization and a Smart Reading Environment

The main branch of the NCL on Zhongshan South Road began operations on September 28, 1986, and has been providing services for over three decades. To provide readers with a higher quality, user-friendly space, we submitted the four-year “Optimization of Environments and Service Enhancement of National Social Education Institutions Project” to the Executive Yuan in June 2020, which was approved and received NT$137.65 million in funding. The project implementation period was from January 1, 2021, to December 31, 2024. Contents included the reenvisioning of the NCL’s image, namely the “Renovations of the Building Façade and General Use Environments Project,” as well as sub-projects concerning spatial optimization: “Global Chinese Studies Exchange and Smart Service Spaces Project,” “Themed Exhibition and Innovative Interactive Reading Spaces Project,” and “Quality Learning Spaces for Readers Project.” Renovation projects which were completed in 2024 include the following: addressing water leakages and falling exterior wall tiles caused by the aging of the building; installing more aesthetically pleasing outdoor lighting and landscaping; increasing display space for special collections, Chinese studies, and periodicals to further their use; installing barrier-free lifts for a more user-friendly environment; and optimizing the 2F and 3F spaces for a more comfortable reading environment.

自 1970 年以來，本館館藏之臺灣出版的中西文學術期刊、學報以及部分港澳地區出版的期刊逾 5,500 種。為落實學術資訊開放與學術文獻檢索利用，積極充實數位影像資料，並爭取刊物及個人作者的無償授權，希望藉由系統開放取用服務，提高期刊文獻的能見度與被引用，使研究者更能充分利用學術研究成果，從而提升臺灣學術研究效能。

「期刊文獻資訊網」2024 年與出版單位簽訂或更新授權計 22 所，個人作者以線上與通訊授權計 19 人次共 27 篇文獻授權；完成期刊影像數位化 199 萬 1,859 影幅，系統使用逾 385 萬次，平均每月使用逾 32 萬次。系統累計建檔期刊篇目逾 335 萬筆，已掃描影幅累計約 3,308 萬影幅，獲得出版者正式授權於網際網路公開免費公眾使用的期刊文獻篇數約計 42 萬餘篇。服務對象遍及臺灣與世界各地，是世界華文學術期刊指標性的資料庫。

periodicals in Taiwan. Among its services, its database with search functionality has collected over 5,500 Chinese and foreign-language academic journals, bulletins, and other periodicals published in Hong Kong and Macao since 1970. To promote open access to and the utilization of academic literature, we have been actively expanding our digital image resources and securing authorization from publishers and individual authors, thereby increasing the visibility and citation rates of periodicals as well as enabling researchers to fully leverage related resources in Taiwan.

In 2024, “Taiwan Periodical Literature” signed or renewed authorization agreements with 22 publishers, and secured the authorization of 27 publications from 19 individual authors. Digitalization of said literature continued with the addition of 1,991,859 images, and the platform was used more than 3.85 million times, an average of 320,000 visits per month. In total, the platform has accumulated over 3.35 million periodical entries, has scanned about 33.08 million images, and has obtained authorization to make about 420,000 articles available for free to the public. Finally, it is available to users both in Taiwan and around the world, making it a significant database for Chinese-language academic periodicals worldwide.

因應語意網時代來臨，未來圖書館的書目及權威資料將無可避免地朝向鏈結資料環境及語意網時代邁進，書目與權威資料以鏈結形式開放及取用，已然蔚為趨勢。本館 2020 年與國立臺灣大學圖書館共同簽署「合作建置臺灣鏈結資源備忘錄」，

The “Linked Open Data Taiwan @ Library” System and Information Organization Services

In response to the era of the semantic web, the bibliographic and authoritative data of future libraries will inevitably continue to move towards linked data. Including these additions, a total of 21,017 subject authorities, 28,352 taxonomy authorities, 334,882 individual name authorities, and 20,879 group authorities have now been established. Additionally, to ensure that the authoritative data established by various parties has a consistent format and stable quality, the romanizations of cities and counties as well as townships and villages in Taiwan, and the spellings of country names have been completed for appendices eight through ten found in New Classification Scheme for Chinese Libraries (2007 edition). Finally, the translation of Resource and Description Access (RDA) terminology into Chinese has been carried out, with 900 terms being translated into Chinese in 2024, bringing the total to 2,020.

Smart Taiwan and Promoting Sinology Worldwide

擴展漢學平臺，促進學術傳播

結合國內漢學研究機構，建立合作網絡機制

參與國際漢學學術社群會議

為擴大臺灣學術影響力，推展臺灣研究成果，本館漢學研究中心與蔣經國學術交流基金會共同策劃參加國際重要漢學組織年會並舉辦書展，以推廣臺灣優質出版品和學術成果，會後將書展書籍贈予當地大學圖書館。本年度主要活動包括於美國亞洲研究學會（簡稱 AAS）3 月 14 日至 17 日於西雅圖辦理書展；參與歐洲漢學學會（簡稱 EACS）於 8 月 27 日至 30 日在愛沙尼亞塔林大學舉行雙年會。

另外，與 AAS 關係密切的美國東亞圖書館協會（簡稱 CEAL）所屬「中文資料委員會」（Committee on Chinese Materials）邀請本館王涵青館長，於西雅圖當地時間 2024 年 3 月 13 日參與主題為「危機與對應」特別會議，以“Taking up the Torch of Wisdom—The Next Chapter: Branding Beyond the Pandemic.”為題，進行專題報告。

Expanding Chinese Studies Platforms to Further Academic Dissemination

Integrating Domestic Chinese Studies Institutions to Establish Cooperative Networks

Participating in International Chinese Studies Conferences

In an effort to expand Taiwan's academic influence and promote research achievements made here in Taiwan, the Center for Chinese Studies at the NCL continues to collaborate with the Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange to participate in the annual conferences of significant international Chinese studies organizations at which we organize book exhibitions. Following any conference, the publications are then donated to the local university library. In 2024, such events included the annual conferences of the Association for Asian Studies (AAS) held in Seattle from March 14–17 and of the European Association for Chinese Studies (EACS) held at Tallinn University in Estonia from August 27–30.

Additionally, the Council of East Asian Libraries (CEAL), which is closely associated with the AAS, invited NCL Director-General Han-Ching Wang to lecture on “Taking up the Torch of Wisdom—The Next Chapter: Branding Beyond the Pandemic” at the “Crisis vs. Responses” special session on March 13, 2024.

合作辦理學術會議及活動

6月20日至21日，與輔仁大學華裔學志漢學研究中心、以及德國聖奧古斯丁華裔學志研究所共同合作舉辦「2024 華裔學志漢學國際會議 非洲與華人文化的相遇：經典、歷史、宗教與圖像」。本次會議共邀請了近30位學者與會，進行發表與交流。

10月4日，與法務部調查局「展望與探索雜誌社」合辦「美國大選對兩岸關係及區域安全的影響」學術研討會。會議邀請國內外專家學者就即將舉行之美國總統大選，從政治、經濟、外交與軍事等面向切入，探討對兩岸關係與區域安全的影響。本次為本館連續9年合辦，本研討會已成為探討中國大陸情勢、兩岸關係與區域安全的年度重要學術盛會。

10月17日至18日與波蘭亞當·密茨凱維奇大學（AMU）政治與新聞學院政治理論及哲學系合辦，於該校舉辦「漢學研究與全球文化變遷·翻譯與闡釋間的多語詮釋學」國際研討會。會中配合舉辦「臺灣漢學講座」，邀請斯洛維尼亞盧比亞納大學亞洲研究學系羅亞娜教授主講「跨文化研究與揚棄法」。

10月30日至11月1日與國立政治大學華人文化元宇宙研究中心、財團法人台灣文創發展基金會、與遠流出版事業股份有限公司於本館國際會議廳共同舉辦「金庸百年傳奇：對話·反思·超越」國際學術研討會。

Co-Hosting Academic Conferences and Other Activities

From June 20–21, in collaboration with the Monumenta Serica Sinological Research Center, Fu Jen Catholic University, and the Monumenta Serica Institute in Sankt Augustin, Germany, the NCL co-hosted the “Encounter of Africa and Chinese Culture: Classics, History, Religion, and Images” conference, which invited nearly thirty scholars to present and engage in exchange.

On October 4, in collaboration with the periodical Prospect & Exploration of the Investigation Bureau, Ministry of Justice (MOJ), the NCL co-hosted “The U.S. Election’s Impact on Cross Strait Relations and Regional Security” symposium, inviting experts from both here in Taiwan and abroad to discuss the U.S. presidential election from political, economic, diplomatic, and military perspectives. The year 2024 marked the ninth consecutive year that we co-hosted the symposium which has now become a significant academic event concerning cross-strait relations.

From October 17–18, in collaboration with the Department of Political Philosophy and Theory at Adam Mickiewicz University (AMU) in Poland, the NCL co-hosted the “Chinese Studies and Global Cultural Changes. Hermeneutics of Multilinguisticity between Translations and Interpretations” international conference at AMU. Additionally, a session of the “Taiwan Lectures on Chinese Studies” series was held during the conference, which invited Professor Jana S. Rošker of the Department of Asian Studies at the University of Ljubljana, Slovenia, to lecture on “Transcultural Studies and the Method of Sublation.”

From October 30 to November 1, in collaboration with the Research Center for Chinese Cultural Metaverse in Taiwan at National Chengchi University, the Taiwan Cultural and Creativity Development Foundation, and Yuan-Liou Publishing, the NCL co-hosted the “Jin Yong: A Legend of Wuxia” international conference at the NCL.

Beginning in 2012, the NCL has been promoting the establishment of Taiwan Resource Centers for Chinese Studies (TRCCS) at major universities and research institutes

2024 年 TRCCS 新增美國匹茲堡大學、哈佛大學以及加拿大亞伯達大學 3 個據點，並與芬蘭赫爾辛基大學、捷克帕拉斯基大學簽署 TADRC 合作協議。總計於全球 29 國設置 50 個 TRCCS、3 個 TADRC。

In 2024, the NCL added three TRCCSs at the University of Pittsburgh, Harvard University, and the University of Alberta. Cooperation agreements regarding the TADRC were also signed with the University of Helsinki and Palacký University Olomouc (Czech Republic). In total, there are now 50 TRCCSs and 3 TADRCs operating in 29 countries.

中文文獻資源共建共享合作會議

「中文文獻資源共建共享合作會議」宗旨在於聯繫世界各地庋藏中文文獻資源的圖書館或資訊機構，以促進中文文獻資源的共建共享。第十五次「中文文獻資源共建共享合作會議」於11月27至28日由香港公共圖書館主辦，香港圖書館協會及香港特別行政區大學圖書館長聯席會協辦。以線上形式舉辦，會議主題為「返本開新——開拓、超越與前瞻」，聚焦文獻保護與數位創新，由來自香港、新加坡、澳門、中國大陸、臺灣等地的圖書與檔案館界同道，共同探討文獻修護保存之文化傳承經驗。本館由漢學研究中心黃文德副主任、特藏文獻組莊惠茹編輯及林俐伶修復師出席與會。

The “Conference on Cooperative Development and Sharing of Chinese Resources”

The aim of the “Conference on Cooperative Development and Sharing of Chinese Resources” (CCDSCR) is to connect libraries and other information institutions around the world that hold Chinese-language literature to promote the sharing of such resources. The 15th rendition of the conference, titled “Reaching Back to Move Forward,” was held online by the Hong Kong Public Libraries system from November 27–28, with the Hong Kong Library Association and the Joint University Librarians Advisory Committee serving as co-organizers, and primarily centered on document preservation and innovation in digitalization. Participants from Hong Kong, Singapore, Macau, mainland China, Taiwan, and other regions in the library and/or archives profession discussed experiences concerning the preservation of cultural heritage, including document conservation and restoration. Representing the NCL were Deputy Director Huang Wende of the Center for Chinese Studies as well as Editor Chuang Hui-ju and Specialist Lin Li-ling of the Special Collections Division.

拓展 Taiwan Corner，強化臺灣出版品之國際能見度

為增進各國對臺灣之認識，本館積極與各國國家圖書館及代表性公共圖書館洽談設立 Taiwan Corner 進行贈書。Taiwan Corner 書架陳列兒童故事繪本、認識臺灣風情民俗的立體書、地圖，有關臺灣的歷史民俗特別圖書、博物館的文物與書畫典藏、臺灣自然生態及當代臺灣文學藝術等

建置國際中文古籍書目合作平臺，全球共享書目資源

A Global Catalogue of Chinese-Language Rare Books

為利中文文獻資源共建共享，本館於1998年以臺灣地區古籍書目為基礎建置「臺灣地區善本古籍聯合目錄」；2012年12月起，將聯合目錄整合至「古籍與特藏文獻資源」網站，並更名為「中文古籍聯合目錄」，致力於全球古籍典藏機構書目之蒐集，並持續積極拓展全球合作單位。

In an effort to better share Chinese-language literature, the NCL in 1998 created the “Union Catalogue of Chinese-Language Rare Books in Taiwan” for all Chinese-language rare books and stitch-bound books held by the libraries of public institutions in Taiwan. In December 2012, this union catalogue was then integrated with our “Rare Books and Special Collections” service platform, which was accordingly renamed the “Union Catalogue of Chinese-Language Rare Books in Taiwan,” with its ultimate goal reorientated towards being inclusive of all the catalogues of related collections throughout the world. 加強國際書目交流，增進臺灣出版品書目資源之影響

Increasing the Exchange and Influence of Bibliographic Resources in Taiwan Worldwide

本館致力國際合作，持續上傳中文圖書資料書目至全球最大書目中心 OCLC 的資料庫 WorldCat，提高臺灣出版品及研究成果在國際上的能見度，促進各國圖書館選購臺灣出版品之可及性，並可提供圖書館資訊組織人員分類編目參考，擴大臺灣中文書目的影響力。2024 年上傳 OCLC WorldCat 書目資料量達 2 萬 7,412 筆，全球及亞洲原編貢獻量中均位居第二。

The NCL has remained committed to international cooperation, continuing to upload bibliographic data of Chinese-language materials to WorldCat, the world's largest bibliographic database maintained by OCLC. By doing so, we aim to increase the visibility of Taiwanese publications and research achievements, promote the accessibility of Taiwanese publications for libraries around the world, and provide references for information organization and cataloging. In 2024, the number of records uploaded to WorldCat reached 27,412, ranking second globally and in Asia in terms of original contributions.

穩定發展國際書刊交換，傳布學術研究成果

Solidifying International Exchange of Publications and Disseminating Research from Taiwan

connections, as well as bolstering related collections here in Taiwan. Numerous significant publications and documents, such as annual reports, surveys, bilateral meeting reports, statistical data, minutes and proceedings, directories, guides, and even some monographs, cannot always be procured through conventional channels. Exchanges relying on the above connections are thus relied upon to secure specific literature, with participating parties including national libraries, major research universities, and academic research institutes. Among them, the NCL participated in book exchanges with 60 unique partners and in periodical exchanges with 460. In 2024, such exchanges added 11,050 items to our collections, while contributing 15,765 items to the collections of participating partners.

Additionally, we have collaborated with 53 institutes to establish resource centers abroad, namely Taiwan Resource Centers for Chinese Studies (TRCCS) and the Taiwan Academic Digital Resource Center (TADRC). Our signed cooperation agreements include regular publication donations on a yearly project basis, thereby disseminating significant literature from Taiwan around the world. In 2024, a total of 4,997 items (5,817 volumes) were donated through this channel, bringing the total from the period of 2013 to 2024 to 69,821 items (82,402 volumes); furthermore, e-books have been included in exchanges, with 103 and 204 being exchanged in 2023 and 2024, respectively.

To track these efforts and provide related information, the NCL has established the “Book Selection System of the International Exchange of Publications” system, the “International Book Exchange Inquiry System,” and the “TRCCS Website and Book Information Service System.”

協助合作夥伴，分享古籍整理經驗

Sharing Experiences in the Collation and Organization of Rare Books

On October 14, Jagiellonian University of Poland, a Taiwan Resource Centers for Chinese Studies (TRCCS) partner institute, visited the NCL. The delegation was led by Professor Wladyslaw Witalisz, dean of the Faculty of Philology, and included another five scholars: Professor Jadwiga Kita-Huber, vice-dean of the Faculty of Philology; Professor Ewa Zajdler of the Japanology and Sinology Department; Dr. Sebastian Wielosz; Sinologist Maria Jarosz; and Chinese language teacher Yi-An Shi. Prof. Kita-Huber and Dr. Wielosz respectively introduced the Berlin Collections and Libri sinici Collections of Jagiellonian University. Specialist Lin Li-ling of the NCL Special Collections Division in turn presented on our conservation and preservation of ancient Chinese books and digitalization efforts. The delegation also participated in a two-week program, contents of which included introductions to digital resources held by the Center for Chinese Studies and Special Collections as well as consultation services. We were finally fortunate to have retired NCL staff member Hsu Hui-min provide her expertise on collation and organization as a part of the program.

A Knowledge Map for Librarians and Related Staff: The Formulation of Professional Guidelines

To promote the development of the national library industry and guide the professional growth of library and information science partners, the NCL implements an annual program designed to establish related professional service guidelines. The aim is to assist libraries in establishing a foundational service model, breaking through existing service frameworks to maximize the professional value of library staff, as well as enhancing reader services and fostering the professional development of library staff.

To this end, the NCL commissioned Professor Hao-Ren Ke of the Graduate Institute of Library and Information Studies at National Taiwan Normal University to draft the Accessibility Guidelines for Public Libraries, which was published in 2023. Following suggestions on how to further improve offered by the League for Persons with Disabilities, in 2024, multiple professional associations and societies were invited to assist in the revision process. The second revised edition was completed and made available to public libraries throughout Taiwan to better the understanding of librarians and related staff regarding accessibility issues in public library services. This has ensured that services, spaces, and facilities are designed to comprehensively consider the characteristics and needs of diverse groups, thereby achieving the goal of equal access to public library services.

Inverting Training Models

Improving Professional Development Training Programs

In 2024, the NCL held the “Public Library Professional Development Training Program” to further the understanding

「公共圖書館精進訓練課程」，規劃七大課程邀請圖資專業與相關系所教授授課，課程包括館藏發展與館藏採購實務、資訊組織、人際溝通、設計思考與創新服務、圖書館策展實務、圖書館資訊科技應用、品質管理與顧客服務，並取得國立臺灣師範大學非正規教育課程認證中心之課程認證。

2024 年公共圖書館訓練課程於臺中市、桃園市辦理 2 場次，開放全國圖書館員報名參加，課程結合學習成就評估，依測驗結果核發學分證書，促使公共圖書館館員掌握課程重點及增進個人能力。

為提升並健全我國公共圖書館營運效能，強化館員專業能力，規劃「2024 年公共圖書館營運管理及創新發展系列課程」，課程以工作坊或講座授課方式進行，以期藉由圖書資訊專業發展研習及交流系列活動，以及專題實作之內容規劃，有效提升館員對於圖書館分齡分眾服務及建構圖書館品牌識別系統等面向之專業知能與素養，激發館員對公共圖書館服務與經營之創新思維。2024 年以「創新人生閱讀三部曲」為題辦理 3 場課程：8 月 5 日「嬰幼兒閱讀推廣與活動設計」、8 月 12 日「青少年科普閱讀好好玩！如何創造有趣的沈

of librarians and related staff regarding trends and professional knowledge in the field of library and information science. The program included seven courses taught by experts in related disciplines: collections development and acquisition practices, information organization, interpersonal communication, design thinking and innovative services, curation and exhibition practices, information technology applications, quality management, and customer services. Participants could receive informal accreditation from the Non-Formal Education Programs Accreditation Center at National Taiwan Normal University.

Two sessions, open to librarians and related staff, were organized in Taichung and Taoyuan cities, respectively. Learning achievement assessments and accreditation based on test results were incorporated into the program, aiming to assist participants in better grasping course materials and enhancing their professional capabilities.

The “Public Library Operational Management and Innovative Development Course Series”

In an effort to further the operational efficiency of public libraries throughout Taiwan and solidify the professional capacities of related staff, the NCL organized the 2024 “Public Library Operational Management and Innovative Development Course Series,” namely a workshop and round of lectures, with the aim of fostering professional development and exchanges regarding library and information science through practical exercises. Specific areas of focus included developing a professional literacy in age and group-based services as well as in systems that lead to brand recognition, both of which stimulated innovative thinking. In 2024, three sessions were held centered on the theme “An Innovative Reading

2024 年辦理 4 場「館員專業知能訓練」，以開創館員創新思維與視野，結合現代新科技應用為目標，並以業務實務兼具培養美感素養與 AI 應用為主。邀請臺南市立圖書館洪玉貞前館長及國立臺灣大學圖書館典藏服務組劉應琳組長分享「新館開館籌備過程經驗分享」與「臺大圖書館 ASRS 建置與營運經驗分享」，以協助館員對南館興建未來規劃有更清晰完整的概念。同時邀請台灣設計研究院劉世南研發長及臺北市立大學視覺藝術學系蕭惠君教授授課，以「美感素養工作坊：設計思考與圖書館美感設計」及「應用美學工作坊：製作亮眼且專業簡報的設計技巧」為主題，讓館員學習如何創造不同圖書館價值及目標客群的圖書館服務，並提升運用 AI 輔助製作簡報能力。

Enhancing Professional Identity and Enthusiasm for Service

In 2024, the NCL organized four “Librarian Professional Competencies Training” sessions designed to foster innovative thinking and broaden one’s horizons, while integrating modern technological applications. Core themes centered on practical business operations, aesthetic literacy, and AI application. Former Director Janice Hung of the Tainan Public Library and Liu Ying-lin, head of services at the National Taiwan University Library Special Collections, were invited to respectively present on “Preparatory Processes in Establishing a New Library” and “Establishing and Operating the Automated Storage and Retrieval System (ASRS) of the Southern Branch of the NCL,” both of which aimed to provide librarians and related staff with a clearer and more comprehensive understanding of the future planning for the construction of the Southern Branch. Furthermore, we invited Vice President Shyhnan Liou of the Research and Development Division at the Taiwan Design Research Institute and Professor Hsiao Hui-chun of the Department of Visual Arts at University of Taipei to instruct at the “Aesthetic Literacy Workshop: Design Thinking and Aesthetic Design for Libraries” and the “Applied Aesthetics Workshop: Design Techniques for Creating Attention-Grabbing and Professional Presentations,” both of which instructed on how to create library services tailored to specific values and target audiences, as well as using AI in creating presentations.

際視野、掌握國際趨勢，8月21日特別邀請多倫多大學圖書館 Larry Alford 館長來臺演講，講題為「探討數位時代印刷品保存的意義、方法與未來展望」，主要以多倫多大學圖書館在 Downsview 校區建置的 Keep@Downsview 與加拿大五校合作的聯合典藏書庫為例，分享其建置與營運經驗，包含建置過程中的設計需求、運作方式（包括無酸儲存盒、大開本圖書放置、入庫作業流程、入庫資源的挑選），以及如何透過與專業倉儲管理人員合作以更有效地管理運作等經驗。除專題演講外，亦安排與 Larry Alford 館長的交流座談，包含利用聊天機器人回答讀者問題、運用 AI 技術對已數位化圖檔進行加值以提供檢索等，促進業務之交流。 to broaden international perspectives and keep pace with global trends, the NCL specially invited Chief Librarian Larry Alford of the University of Toronto to lecture on “Print Preservation in the Digital Age: Why, How, the Future.” Using the example of the Keep@Downsview system established by the University of Toronto Libraries at Downsview in collaboration with five Canadian universities, Chief Librarian Alford shared their experiences in both system establishment and operations, including design requirements, methods in operations (such as acid-free archival boxes, placement of large print books, inventory processing, and acquisition selection), as well as how to cooperate with professional warehouse management personnel. In addition to the lecture, a discussion session was organized, which included the use of chatbots to answer reader questions and the application of AI technology digitized image and file retrieval.

研習課程於 2 月 19 日至 22 日舉行，講師包括臺灣出版業界專家與學者，讓專業專員能夠深入了解華文出版品、影音資料，以及數位資料庫等採購相關議題。研習會第二天（2 月 20 日）全程帶領學員們參觀 2024 年台北國際書展首日開展盛況，讓學員有充裕的時間走訪臺灣參展出版社及蒐集豐富的出版資料，掌握臺灣出版界相關發展趨勢，為未來協助學術研究工作建立更厚實的基礎。

“International Seminar for East Asian Library Professional Librarians” to further exchanges with East Asian studies libraries and Chinese studies research institutions worldwide. In 2024, the seminar was titled “Librarians: Acquisitions of Taiwan Publications and Digital Research Resources,” with the goal of assisting librarians and related staff in better grasping procurement channels, introducing academic achievements and efforts in Taiwan, as well as creating a foundation for research support.

From February 19–22, seminar contents featured lectures by experts and scholars from the publishing sector in Taiwan on acquisitions—and related issues—of Chinese-language publications, audio-visual materials, and digitized archival materials. Furthermore, on the second day of the seminar, participants were taken on a guided tour of the 2024 Taipei International Book Exhibition on its opening day, allowing them to visit Taiwanese publishers and collect materials of interest. The activity in this way provided an understanding of the latest publishing trends in Taiwan, laying a solid foundation for future academic research work and exchanges.

本館每年藉由主動邀請或者其他機緣，積極聯繫國際圖書館與學術機構同道來訪，2024 年邀請個人來臺部分，有南非國家圖書館開普敦分館館長馬菲爾（Marcus L. Maphile）先生及多倫多大學圖書館 Larry Alford 館長，分別於 6 月 21 日、8 月 21 日蒞館演講。在團體方面，2 月 21 日，新加坡國家圖書館管理局黃美萍副主任等 3 人來訪；3 月 20 日韓國國學振興院於座談並簽署「綜合性合作協議」與「中文古籍聯合目錄合作協議」；5 月 22 日，越南河內國家大學下屬人文與社會科學大學黃英俊校長及 4 位該校主管職員來館進行訪問交流座談；6 月 4 日，愛沙尼亞塔圖大學亞洲中心主任 Elo Süld 等 3 人到訪，洽談共同舉辦講座及出版相關事宜；8 月 27 日，泰國宋卡王子大學圖書館館長 Ophat Kaosaiyaporn 教授，率領 4 位主管來館訪問及進行館務交流。

Exchange Visits of Libraries and Institutes to the NCL

The NCL continues to facilitate visits by experts and scholars associated with international libraries or academic institutes annually. In 2024, we invited Director Marcus L. Maphile of the Cape Town branch of the National Library of South Africa and Chief Librarian Larry Alford of the University of Toronto to deliver lectures on June 21 and August 21, respectively. For visits by delegations, three representatives from the National Library Board of Singapore, including Senior Head Jane Wee of Collection Planning and Development, visited the NCL on February 21; the Korean Studies Institute (KSI) participated in a symposium and signed two cooperation agreements, one of which concerns the “Union Catalogue of Chinese-Language Rare Books in Taiwan,” on March 20; Rector Hoàng Anh Tuấn along with four management staff members of the University of Social Sciences and Humanities, Vietnam National University, participated in a symposium on May 22 during their visit; Head Elo Süld of the Asia Centre and two other representatives of the University of Tartu, Estonia, visited to discuss jointly organizing lectures, publications, and related matters on June 4; finally, Director Ophat Kaosaiyaporn of the Khunying Long Athakravisunthorn Learning Resources Center at Prince of Songkla University, Thailand, led a delegation of four management staff members for exchange on library operations on August 27.

publishers regarding repository operations. Additionally, the committee also expanded the range of file formats that the system can accommodate in accordance with the latest e-book and audiobook standards as defined by the World Wide Web Consortium (W3C). The development and implementation of our “Publication Repository System” was completed in December, with plans to launch the system on a trial basis for the publishing industry in the first quarter of 2025. The new system is designed with modularity, separating repository procedures from digital rights management as well as offering services for various forms of publications, such as printed works, .pdf versions, e-books, and audiobooks, all through a single platform.

強化 ISBN 系統功能，成為政府部門對出版服務的橋樑

「全國新書資訊網」為國內新書出版服務的重要平臺，2024 年出版社透過此平臺申請國際標準書號（ISBN）編配計 6 萬 2,328 筆（冊）。2024 年獲得教育部經費挹注，進行平臺功能優化，將紙本書、電子書及有聲書之 ISBN 申辦，整合於單一窗口服務，ISBN 申請、審核、給號提供一站式服務，並與送存系統業務相互銜接連貫，出版者可透過單一帳號登入，完成 ISBN 申請、法定送存及多元授權等作業，縮短申辦流程，提升出版與送存的便利性，為臺灣出版產業創造更完善、更有溫度的生態環境。

Improving “ISBNnet” Functionality to Bridge Government Entities and Publishing Services

“ISBNnet” is an important platform for new book publishing services relied upon throughout Taiwan. In 2024, publishers applied for 62,328 International Standard Book Numbers (ISBN) through the platform. The NCL received funding from the Ministry of Education (MOE) to optimize functionality, integrating the application process for ISBNs for print books, e-books, and audiobooks into one service. ISBN applications, approval process, and issuances are likewise now handled as a one-stop service. Finally, the platform is also seamlessly integrated with the repository system, allowing publishers to log in with a single account to complete ISBN applications, mandatory deposits, and other authorization procedures. All in all, these efforts have streamlined the above processes, improved publishing and deposit procedures, as well as created a more comprehensive and supportive ecosystem for the publishing industry in Taiwan.

透過與出版單位、出版公協會合作辦理新書或主題講座等方式，積極協助推廣臺灣出版優質新書，同時培養讀者閱讀能量，2024年與出版社合作辦理之新書發表暨主題講座閱讀推廣活動共計7場次，參加人次共計1,776人，合作單位包括聯合文學出版社、時報文化、聯經出版、趨勢教育基金會、台北市出版商業同業公會等。

New Book Launches and Lectures

Through collaboration with publishers and related associations in the organization of new book launches and themed lectures, the NCL assisted in promoting high-quality new books from Taiwan while cultivating reading habits. In 2024, we jointly organized a total of 7 new book launches and lectures which also acted as reading promotion events. The activities saw a total of 1,776 participants. Partnering organizations included Unitas Publishing, China Times Publishing, Linking Publishing, the Trend Education Foundation, and the Association of Taipei Publishing.

打造創意實驗中心，促進青少年的多元能

因應資訊媒體發展迅速及多元管道，為提供民眾研究、創作、休閒等需求，教育部於2021年5月21日核定「國家圖書館多媒體創意實驗中心建置及館藏資料典藏暨移藏計畫」，本館重新規劃服務空間、模式及館藏典藏方式，集結研究館藏、導入創新服務，提供民眾多元、專業的資源，打造全新的「多媒體創意實驗中心」，並於2022年11月19日正式對外服務。

多媒體創意實驗中心位址周邊緊臨青少年聚集之西門町與集結眾多臺灣年輕創意藝術家匯聚的西門紅樓，以開放空間、探索學習、跨域整合及交流分享為主軸，結合圖書館閱讀、館藏元素，導入科技、探索、體驗及互動的新概念，打造有別於一般圖書館的OPEN LAB，提供民眾創意發想的場域、知識探索及交流的空間。為推廣館藏及創客資源，2024年分別以「龍心大閱——漫畫書展」、「各種天氣型態語言學習圖書展」、「『這主角不太一樣』漫畫展」及「碧空翱翔——臺灣的鳥視聽資料展」、「Python 奇幻之旅——體驗程

Establishing Creative Spaces to Further the Abilities of Our Youth

In response to the rapid development of information media and the diversity of its channels, as well as aiming to meet the needs of the public, whether in regards to research, creation, or even leisure, the Ministry of Education approved the “Establishment of the NCL Open Lab Multimedia Center and the Migration of Collections Project” on May 21, 2021. With the project in place, the NCL began replanning service spaces and models as well as how one may access our collections, with the ultimate goal of providing the public with further diversified and professional services through—in part—a new multimedia center. On November 19, 2022, the Open Lab Multimedia Center was officially opened.

The Center is located in Ximending, which leans towards a younger crowd, and more specifically, near the Red House, where many young Taiwanese creators can be found. By emphasizing open space, exploratory learning, cross-sector integration, and exchange, the Center combines elements of a traditional library with concepts tied to science and technology, exploration, and interactivity to create an Open Lab that differs from an ordinary library, a place for creativity and ideas as well as exploring and exchanging knowledge. 新建南部分館暨國家聯合典藏中心

本館持續推動 2017 年 12 月 28 日行政院核定之「國家圖書館南部分館暨聯合典藏中心建設計畫」，於 2022 年完成簽約及動工典禮，持續透過建立管考督工機制，積極推進工程進度，截至 2024 年，新建工程進度累計逾 43%；建築物結構體於 4 月趨近完成，為祈求工程順利，於 4 月 18 日於新建工程基地內舉行上梁典禮，行政院長陳建仁親臨主持，包括教育部長潘文忠、本館館長王涵青、臺南市長黃偉哲、圖資界代表、臺南市在地立委及 20 多位市議員、施工團隊等多位貴賓也一同出席，共同見證新建工程達成階段性里程碑。

各項重要設施設備建置案亦持續進行，其中「國家聯合典藏中心高層高效倉儲書架設備採購案」，已完成核定細部設計及耐震測試合格，並於 11 月 7 日進場安裝。「南部分館傢俱設備案」於 10 月 22 日完成核定細部設計。「公共藝術設置計畫案」於 12 月 31 日完成議價決標簽約。

「國家聯合典藏中心書庫管理系統」於 12 月驗收完畢，目前已上傳 163 萬筆書目資料。「圖書博物館展示設計製作統包案」於 7 月 23 日完成決標作業。

The NCL continues to advance the “Southern Branch of the National Central Library and National Repository Library New Construction Project,” which was approved by the Executive Yuan on December 28, 2017, with the contract signing and groundbreaking ceremony taking place in 2022. Through established oversight mechanisms, construction has been actively pushed forward, reaching 43% completion as of the end of 2024. As the structural framework of the building was nearing completion in April, to wish for continued smooth progress, a beam-raising ceremony was held on April 18, which was presided over by Premier Chen Chien-jen and attended by Minister Pan Wen-chung of Education, NCL Director-General Han-Ching Wang, Mayor Huang Wei-che of Tainan, representatives of the library and information science community, local legislators, city councilors, and members of the construction company, all of whom bore witness to the milestone.

The construction and installation of several important facilities and pieces of equipment have also progressed. The “National Repository Library High-Performance High Shelving Purchase Acquisition,” for example, had its detailed designs approved and passed seismic testing, with installation on November 7; the detailed designs for the “Southern Branch of the NCL Furnishings Purchase Acquisition” were finalized on October 22; the bidding and contract signing of the “Public Art Installation Project” were completed on December 31; final inspections of the “National Repository Library Automated Storage/Retrieval and Return/Sorting System” were completed in December, in which 1.63 million bibliographic records have already been uploaded; and finally, the “NCL Display Design and Installation” project was awarded on July 23.
