

NCL Deputy Director General Sung Chien-cheng (center) and library colleagues at TIBE.

have been arranged and converted to digital format for public online access. The NCL exhibit at this year's TIBE specifically highlighted systems related to images of Taiwan.

The NCL also presented various library publications for sale, including Tainan during the Japanese Occupation Period, Taipei during the Japanese Occupation Period, Feast for the Eyes: Historic Photographs of Taiwan, An Introduction to Selected Online Resources for Taiwan Studies, Catalog of Chinese Electronic Resources, A History of Books, Catalog of Taiwanese Maps (2000-2006), and Concealing to Reveal; The "Private" and "Sentiment" in Chinese History and Culture (CD-ROM), and other highly rated books. The library also displayed a Catalog of Selected Publications of the National Central Library in Chinese and English, with brief introductions and ordering information.

■ Books on the Move: Jiabei Elementary Book Exchange Activity

Chiayi City's Jiabei Elementary School kicked off a "Let Books Travel" book exchange activity on January 14, 2008. Last year the school held a book donation drive, during which students and teachers donated nearly 500 secondhand books for the school's reading room. This year the school took a new approach to give students free access to good books during the winter vacation. The "Let Books Travel" activity also introduced students to the concept and joy of book sharing. At the back of each book is a section in which the students can share their thoughts about the book with other students.
