

Speakers representing various memory programs (from left to right): Dr. Patrick Mok of the Centre of Asian Studies at the University of Hong Kong; Ms. Sung Mei-chen and Director Lin Chiao-min of the NCL; Dr. Ku Kam-ming of the University of Hong Kong; Deputy Director-general Han Pu and Local Document Department Director Wang Wei of the Capital Library of China

Representing the NCL, Director Lin Chiao-min and Ms. Sung Mei-chen of the Reader Services Division attended the meeting and presented a report on "Sharing Experience on Collection Digitization and Taiwan Memory Development." Also during the two-day meeting, the Capital Library in Beijing shared its experience in developing the "Beijing Memory" system, and the Hong Kong Centre of Asian Studies and University of Hong Kong Library jointly briefed the meeting about the "Hong Kong Memory" system. The host country Macao also introduced the formative concepts of the "Macao Memory" system now under planning. (Chinese text by Sung Mei-chen)

■ MOE Donates Books to French University

The Ministry of Education (MOE) presented 500 Chinese-language books and multimedia educational resources published in Taiwan to Univeristé Jean Moulin Lyon 3 in France on March 6, 2008. The donated resources will support Chinese language and Taiwanese studies courses at the French university. Taiwan's representative in France, the president and vice president of Univeristé Jean Moulin Lyon 3, and the director of the Chinese section of the university's language and literature library attended the donation ceremony, which was held at the language and literature library. During the ceremony, Taiwan's representative in France Michel Ching-Long Lu presented a Taiwan atlas to the university.

Taiwan and Univeristé Jean Moulin Lyon 3 share close academic exchange and cooperation ties. This year, 40 students from the university attended a four-week language course at National Tsing Hua University (NTHU). The university also plans to make exchange visits with the NCL to assist with the cataloging of Chinese and French books. Moreover, on March 16 this year, seven scholars from the university attended symposiums on Taiwanese literature at National Taiwan University, NTHU, and National Chengchi University.

■ NATWA Donates Books to Promote English Reading Ability

The North American Taiwanese Women's Association (NATWA) held a book donation ceremony on March 19, 2008, at the Affiliated Senior High School of National Chi-Nan University. The donated books were collected during the association's annual "Sending Books Home" activity and presented to over 20 Puli Village elementary and secondary schools, represented by their respective principals at the ceremony. The English-language books are aimed at improving the English skills of young students in Taiwan.

The chairperson of the donation committee at NATWA noted that the association has held the