News from Taiwan Libraries

■ 2010 Golden Book Awards,

In order to encourage the publication of management books beneficial to the development and upgrading of small and medium enterprises (SMEs), the Small and Medium Enterprise Administration of the Ministry of Economic Affairs for several years has commissioned the Chinese Management Association to hold the Golden Book Awards. The well-received award has been presented for books primarily in the field of business management with content applicable to SMEs. On November 30, 2010, to January 2, 2011, the National Taiwan Library held an exhibition of Golden Book Award winning publications to encourage SME managers to expand their knowledge on business management through reading, as well as to introduce the general public to the award-winning books.

■ "Listen to the Sound of the Sea: Marine Science Art in Children's Illustrated Books" Lecture Series

A touring lecture series on marine science

art in children's illustrated books was held at the Children's Reading Room at the Taipei Public Library, Main Branch and 12 TPL branches in cooperation with the Center for General Education, National Taiwan Normal University in January 2011. The activity aimed to support marine science education for children using a dynamic approach of self-created electronic illustrated books.

■ Taipei Public Library Promotes Self-serve Book Borrowing

On December 20 to 26, 2010, the Taipei Public Library arranged an activity to promote usage of its self-service book borrowing system. The activity introduced parents to the service so they can help their children to check out books with the system. The new service aims to make it easier and more fun to borrow books to encourage reading and promote family learning.

■ English Children's Book Reading Guide

In order to expand the horizons of young people, the Taipei Public Library is arranging a series of activities on English children's books in 2011. Each month, the library will introduce works by a famous illustrator of children's books, with readings of one book each week. Volunteers will guide the children in reading the books, using movement, sound and other interactive means. The activity is open to children in the second grade or higher. Participants will get a stamp for each activity they attend and receive a coupon for an NT$100 discount off illustrated book purchases after collecting 16 stamps.
