

public cultivation in classical culture. The library is therefore planning to produce a series of e-books titled "Chinese Studies E-Classic Series Publication: Tool Books." Through the publication of this series, the NCL aims to promote digital reading, present refined culture, and add new charm to digital research.

The NCL compiled the "Table of Conversion from MARC 21 Bibliographic Format to the Chinese MARC Third Edition" to smooth conversion and exchange between the MARC21 and CMARC formats. The conversion table is based on the 1999 Edition Update No. 1 (October 2001) through Update No. 12 (October 2010) of the "MARC 21 for Bibliographical Format" and the "third edition of CMARC." It also references the "Table of Conversion from US MARC to the Chinese MARC Third Edition" formulated in 1993 by the Library Automation Planning Committee (LAPC) of the Library Association of China (Taiwan) (now the Library Association of the Republic of China (Taiwan)) for MARC format address, field, indicator, and subfield comparison and conversion.
